

MONDAY, MAY 5 | 9:00a – 2:00p

9:00	Opening Remarks	Nicole Pangborn
9:20	Panel 1: Governing Natural Resources: Challenges to the Renewable Energy Transition Faculty Moderator: Christopher Rea  Peter Edelstein: "From Dependence to Dominance: How the Shale Revolution Rewired U.S. Foreign Policy in the Persian Gulf"  Emma Huang: "Methane, Markets and the Myth of Bridge Fuel: Reevaluating Natural Gas as a Strategy for Decarbonization"  Lina Hansen: "Locating Sustainable Extraction: A Comparative Study of Lithium in Jujuy, Argentina & Nevada, USA"  Charlie Adams: "Ghosts in the (Green) Machine: Escaping the Dunkelflaute of National Climate Politics in the U.S."
10:25	Panel 2: Shaping Minds, Shaping Communities: Education, Ethnicity, and Political Influence Faculty Moderator: Susan Moffitt  Isabella Mandell: "From Redlining and Busing to School Choice and Gentrification: Segregation by Design in Denver, Colorado"  Elysee Barakett: "Thank God for Mississippi: How Science of Reading Laws Diffused in Three States"  Lilly Roth-Shapiro: "Framing Identity: Nonprofit Messaging and the Politics of Latinidad"
11:30	Bagged Lunch
12:00	Panel 3: Expanding Spheres of Justice: Perspectives from the U.S. and Abroad Faculty Moderator: Vibha Pingle  Mia Hamilton: "From Principle to Policy: Tracing the ERA's Role in Congressional Equal Pay Debates, 1962-1982"  Raima Islam: "Liberty or Lockup? How Algorithmic Risk Assessments Shape Trust in the U.S. Criminal Justice System"  Olivia Hanley: "Evaluating Women's Mobilization and Participation in Racial Justice Movement Politics: The Comparative Cases of South Africa's Anti-Apartheid Movement and the United States's Civil Rights Movement"  Charlotte Callender: "Home of the Brave, Land of the Free?: The Biopolitics of Citizenship-for-Service Policies"
1:05	Panel 4: Threats, Deception, and Influence on the Global Stage Faculty Moderator: Tony Levitas  Mira Echambadi: "Re-Examining Threat Perception: Tracing the U.S.-India Relationship Between 1947 and 1971"  Lauren Cho: "A Nuclear Enigma: Understanding US Intelligence Failures in Assessing North Korea's Nuclear Program"  Daniel Salaru: "THE SPECTER OF EMPIRE: Passportization and the Russian Imperial Project, 1991-2022"
1:55	Closing Remarks

TUESDAY, MAY 6 | 9:00a – 12:00p

9:00 Opening Remarks

---

9:20 Panel 5: Political Protest, Political Stability, State Capacity: Rethinking Causes and Effects

Faculty Moderator: Claudia Elliott

Yeabfikir Ayele Alemayehu: “The Effect of Monetary Unions on Political Stability: A Comparative Study of the WAEMU and the EMU”

Bianca Rosen: “Tribes and Tribulations: Morocco and the Arab Spring”

Giovanna Alioto-Pier: “Sacred Disruption: Protest Movements and Secularism Under the Iranian Theocracy”

Michelle Alas Molina: “The Right to the City: The Politics of State Capacity for Participatory Budgeting”

---

10:25 Panel 6: Gender, Labor, and Migration in a Changing World

Faculty Moderator: Nicole Pangborn

Sabina Topol: “Assessing Aid: The Humanitarian Response to Refugee Women Engaged in Sex Work”

Tabitha Lynn: “Commodified Love: The Impact of Filipina Domestic Labor in Hong Kong on Constructions of Family”

Quynh Mai: “Navigating the Unknown: The Impact of the Expectation-Reality Gap, Childhood Reversal, and Specific Community Networks on Refugee Integration”

Ayoola Fadahunsi: “Japa Syndrome: A Temporal Framework on Nigerian Migration to the United States from 1960 to the Present Day”

11:30 Closing Remarks

11:40 Lunch and Reception